

Men of good character.

Men you would want to call son, husband, father, friend. Men who are honest, hard working, patriotic and reverent. Good men working to improve themselves and making this world a better place to live. Their friends at the lodge support them, encourage them, and inspire them to be their best. Always.

Join them.

For more information call:

www.wisc-freemasonry.org