

Freemasons. Men to be admired.

Not just for their achievements, but also for their sportsmanship. Admired for fair play and respect for others. These are men looked up to as leaders — from the board room to the neighborhood and in their place of worship. These are men you want to know better. They are your friends, family and neighbors. These men are Freemasons.

Join them.

For more information call:

www.wisc-freemasonry.org